

LEAVING A LEGACY

How to leave a gift in your will to Sierra Club BC

Leaving a gift in your will to Sierra Club BC is the simplest way to leave a legacy of healthy land and water for future generations to enjoy for many years to come.

After you have remembered your loved ones, please consider including Sierra Club BC in your will. A bequest is the money or property you legally leave in your will. A bequest will help reduce estate taxes. You can name a specific dollar amount or a piece of property, such as a home or securities.

Simply add our legal name and Canadian charitable number and the intention of your gift. You can find some suggested wording on the following page.

Our legal name is: Sierra Club of BC Foundation, 11914 9797 RR0001

To ensure you have a valid will, we strongly recommend you use a legal professional or financial planner.

Suggested wording

"I give to The Sierra Club of BC Foundation, charitable number 11914 9797 RR0001,..."

For specific bequests

"...the sum of $___ to be used for general purposes at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors."

"...(Description of shares or property) to be used for general purposes at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors."

For percentage bequests

"___% of my estate, to be used for general purposes at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors."

For residual bequests

"...the rest and residue of my estate, to be used for general purposes at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors."

If you wish to restrict your bequest to a specific use

"If, in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Sierra Club of BC Foundation, it should be impossible, inadvisable or impractical to use this gift for the specified purpose(s), then the Board may in their discretion use the gift to the best advantage of the Charity, keeping in mind my original wishes."
